The First Reading: Jeremiah 4:11-12, 22-28

Lector A reading from the Prophet Jeremiah.

At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem: A hot wind comes from me out of the bare heights in the desert toward my poor people, not to winnow or cleanse-- a wind too strong for that. Now it is I who speak in judgment against them.

"For my people are foolish, they do not know me; they are stupid children, they have no understanding. They are skilled in doing evil, but do not know how to do good." I looked on the earth, and lo, it was waste and void; and to the heavens, and they had no light. I looked on the mountains, and lo, they were quaking, and all the hills moved to and fro. I looked, and lo, there was no one at all, and all the birds of the air had fled.

I looked, and lo, the fruitful land was a desert, and all its cities were laid in ruins before the Lord, before his fierce anger.

For thus says the Lord: The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end. Because of this the earth shall mourn, and the heavens above grow black; for I have spoken, I have purposed; I have not relented nor will I turn back.

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

People Thanks be to God

Psalm 14

Lector Let us read Psalm 14 together responsively.

1 The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God." *

All are corrupt and commit abominable acts;
there is none who does any good.

2 The LORD looks down from heaven upon us all, *

to see if there is any who is wise,
if there is one who seeks after God.

3 Every one has proved faithless;

all alike have turned bad; *

there is none who does good; no, not one.

4 Have they no knowledge, all those evildoers *

who eat up my people like bread and do not call upon the LORD?

5 See how they tremble with fear, *

because God is in the company of the righteous.

6 Their aim is to confound the plans of the afflicted, *

but the LORD is their refuge.

7 Oh, that Israel's deliverance would come out of Zion! *
when the LORD restores the fortunes of his people,
Jacob will rejoice and Israel be glad.

The Second Reading: 1 Timothy 1:12-17

Lector A reading from Paul's First Letter to Timothy.

I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because he judged me faithful and appointed me to his service, even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a man of violence. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners-- of whom I am the foremost. But for that very reason I received mercy, so that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display the utmost patience, making me an example to those who would come to believe in him for eternal life. To the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

People Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation (repeat as desired)

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia! _____

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp). The first staff is in 6/8 time and contains the melody for the first line of the hymn. The second staff continues the melody, with a 9/8 time signature change in the middle and a 6/8 time signature change at the end. The lyrics are written below the notes.

The Gospel: Luke 15:1-10

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

All the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to Jesus. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them."

So he told them this parable: "Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.' Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

"Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.' Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

Priest The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People

The Intercessor and People pray responsively.

Intercessor Christ, who is the healing salve for the world: You welcomed children and blessed them. We pray for children in our world who experience no such welcome: refugees from violence-riven countries; victims of adult exploitation; pressed into the violence of adult wars.

People May we give comfort and support to those who have been robbed of their childhood by the relentless drive of human hatred and greed.

Intercessor You were moved to tears by the needs of others: so we pray for victims of injustice and prejudice, those taunted, despised or slandered simply because of the color of their skin, their sexuality, their social standing or simply their outward appearance.

People May we be willing to celebrate differences and support those who have been robbed of dignity.

Intercessor You restored to health, those who were sick: so we pray for loved ones who are ill at this time; all those in pain; those without hope of recovery; those distressed in mind; those held prisoner by unseen chains of hopelessness; those who grieve and cannot let go. We pray especially for Gail, Puzz, George, Mike, Ed, Colleen, Lisa, Paul, and Rosemarie.

Silence

The People may add their own petitions

People May we, acting in your name, offer comfort to those who have been deprived of peace and who are longing for your presence.

Intercessor You call us to abandon violence even in the midst of violence, and to follow the way of peace. Help us put an end to gun violence in our neighborhoods. May we refrain from the use of hostile words or tone of voice in what we say to one another in haste and anger; in the demeaning of friends behind their backs; in naming others by our stereotypes and prejudice.

People Christ, you stood silent before unjust accusations, forgive our quick tongues and ugly words. Teach us your grace in speaking with others and about others. Help us to put away our weapons.

Intercessor You challenged the structural inequalities of your time. In our time, unjust economic order still exists – maintained to benefit only a few.

People May we move from lethargy to action as we seek change by rejecting injustice as though it were a normal part of life and with determination, work for the common good.

Intercessor You called disciples to follow and learn from your words and example, which strives now to be your Church in the world working through the power of your Holy Spirit to bring about your healing, peace and justice in this world.

People Bless our Presiding Bishop Michael, our own Bishop, Jeff and all other ministers of your Word and sacraments. Bless and unify your broken Church in the world and in our nation.

Priest God our Creator, when you speak there is light and life, when you act, there is justice and love. Accept these, the prayers of your faithful people, and open our eyes and hearts to see your loving response in our own lives and in the lives of your holy people everywhere. Amen.

The Confession

Priest Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
Silence may be kept.

In Unison

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Priest Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Priest The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The Liturgy of the Table

The Offertory Sentence

This is what the Lord asks of you and only this: that you act justly, love tenderly and walk humbly with your God." (Micah 6:8)

During the Offertory Anthem or hymn, the elements of bread and wine are taken to the altar. At the same time, the ushers will collect the monetary offering and take that to the altar before the Offertory Anthem or hymn is completed

The Great Thanksgiving

Priest The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Priest Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.

Priest Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Priest God of all power, Ruler of the Universe,
you are worthy of glory and praise.
People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Priest At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.
People By your will they were created and have their being.

Priest From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.
People Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Priest Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to Fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.
People By his blood, he reconciled us.
By his wounds, we are healed.

Priest And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Sanctus: Holy is the Lord

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly is the Lord, ho - ly is the Lord God al - migh - ty: who was, and is, and is to come; ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly is the Lord.

Priest

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

All We celebrate his death and resurrection,
as we await the day of his coming.

Priest

Lord God of our Ancestors: God of Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, and Jacob, Ishmael and Hagar; Ruth and Naomi, Jonathan and David; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

All Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Priest

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are glad to say,

In Unison

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who have sinned against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen

The Breaking of the Bread

Priest The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Anyone seeking a closer relationship with God through Jesus Christ is welcome to come forward to share the bread and wine at the Lord's table.

We have gluten free hosts available, ask the priest at the rail.

Communion Hymn # 469 There's a wideness in God's mercy

Prayer after Communion

Priest Together, let us pray.

Loving God, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood. Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, renewed; that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Blessing

May the peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your minds and hearts on the love of God and of God's son, Jesus Christ our Lord. And the blessing of our amazing, loving God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit be among this day and always. Amen.

Announcements

Welcome! If you are worshipping here for the first time, please sign our guest book. You are welcome to join us for refreshments after the service in the Parish Hall.

From Mother Barbara

I have a huge request to make of everyone at the Episcopal Church of St. Paul, at least for the next year or so, while I am acclimating myself to St. Paul's culture and how you do things, as I hope to learn how best to support you all in your various endeavors as God's people. Please run all announcements, ideas for projects to enhance the life of the congregation, past me before sharing them generally with the congregation. This will help me to understand how things generically flow from your ministries and the overall ministry of St. Paul's into the community. I welcome everyone's observations regarding this and your feedback! Thank you. In Christ, Barbara+

Adult Formation

Continuing on Sunday, September 15th, Adult Formation will again focus upon the Bible, with a five part series on a book by Pete Enns, "The Bible Tells Me So . . . Why defending scripture has made us unable to read it." The format will be comprised of a video presentation by Pete Enns combined with group discussion. It will be necessary for participants to read the book as we go along.

Choir News

The St. Paul's Choirs are back in rehearsals and singing for Sunday morning worship at the 10:30 AM services. Thursday Choir Rehearsals: Children's Choir 6:00pm, and the Adult/Youth Choir 7:00 pm.

Vestry Meeting, Sunday September 15, 12 PM

As you may know, the Vestry meetings are always open to the congregation. So in hope of improving communication, achieving greater transparency and parish engagement, we are holding the meeting in the parish hall right after the 10:30 AM service. While only vestry members may speak and vote at the meeting, anyone may observe and later share any questions and comments with Mthr. Barbara, the wardens and vestry members. If you want an item to be discussed, please share your request to Mthr. Barbara a few days in advance of the meeting so that we can get it on the agenda.

Movie Night

We are hoping to have another Movie Night on Friday, September 27th at 6:00 PM. Plans are to show the Disney movie “Frozen”. The announcement will be on the church Facebook page and you can click on “Interested” to let us know if you would attend. Or simply let Peg Newby know if you are interested in attending.

Pet Blessing – October 6th

The Annual Pet Blessing will be held on the front lawn on Sunday, October 6th, at 1:00 PM. Please help us get the word out for the Pet Blessing by taking a flyer to someplace you pass by or go to. They are in the Parish Hall with a sign up sheet.

Prayer List and Healing Liturgy

If you would like to add someone to be prayed for in The Prayers of the People, you can fill out one of the sheets available on the table near the Narthex and give it to the ushers. Or call or email the Parish Office. Names will appear for six weeks, but can be continued if the need continues. There will be a special healing liturgy on the fourth Sunday of each month as part of the Sunday service. Those who would like to come forward for healing will be prayed for and anointed with oil specially consecrated by the bishop.

Special Prayers and Blessings

For Birthdays

God, our times are in your hand: Look with favor, we pray, on your servants, as they begin another year. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Wedding Anniversaries

Gracious Creator: You blessed the marriage of these two people with your love years ago. Amid the joys and struggles of their life you have preserved and strengthened the covenant between them; bless and renew that covenant now, increase your love in them, and strengthen their bond of peace, so that surrounded by their children, family and friends, they may always rejoice in the gift of their love for one another and for your enduring love that blesses their days together. This we ask through Christ our Lord. Amen.

For Travelers

O God, whose beauty and intention fills the whole creation, and whose presence we find wherever we go: preserve those who travel; surround them with your loving care; protect them from every danger; and bring them in safety to their journey's end; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Household Prayer: Morning

O Lord, have mercy on us this day according to your steadfast love. Create clean hearts and new spirits within us and open our lips to declare your praise; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Household Prayer: Evening

We give you thanks and praise, O God, for seeking us when we were lost, for sweeping us up from the darkness, for gathering us into your fold, and for holding us in the palm of your hand. Bring all your wandering children home, so that there may be rejoicing in your church and joy in the presence of your angels; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

A word about the Household Prayers:

These prayers are printed on a page of their own so that you can tear them out and use them in your devotions at home. These prayers come from an anthology titled Feasting on the Word, that includes several liturgies for services. The prayers reflect the readings of the week, including special feast days.
